What's On In September

It may still be August but welcome to our September newsletter, we hope you are ready to hear about lots of exciting news and events that we can't wait to share! So don't fear, we're here to brighten up your September.

At the same time as having loads of great new things to tell you about we are going to use all the events of September as a little way of marking our second birthday which is going to be on August 22nd ... we will not be able to do a special event to celebrate so we will just do it many times in September!

As you will know, we had to postpone our events earlier this year including our sought-after wine tastings and book launches. These are starting again and we are so excited to welcome you all back safely. Find out more below about how a Lord no less will be with us to celebrate his book launch. As well as tickets to this event ...wait for it...you can also buy, through links in this email, tickets to our wine tasting evenings (editors note: don't hesitate with these as by the time you have thought about it they would have sold out!).

We are pleased to say there is now inside seating so you can take refuge from the heat while enjoying an iced coffee! (There are still seats outside for those lovely summer days too.) We also have news about how you can enjoy big savings at the start of the week at BrOOK'S throughout August.

Finally, as promised, we would extend our opening hours as soon as we could. It will certainly be gradual steps but find out below about our changes from the beginning of September. But do not worry if you are still shielding at home as our home delivery service is still running or rather pedaling to your door!

Welcoming You Back

We are delighted to be able to introduce a limited number of tables in store alongside the ones outside. We even have some of our most loved cakes back in the bakery cabinet!

We are taking part in the 'Eat Out to Help Out' scheme. This means you can receive 50% off non-alcoholic drinks and bakery items when they are enjoyed at BrOOK'S on Tuesdays or Wednesdays throughout August.

From the 1st of September we will be extending our opening hours and will be open from 10am to 5pm Tuesday to Sunday.

Our shelves are bursting with books of all different genres, including lots of new in hardbacks and paperbacks. Come in and check out our new layout that makes social distancing and browsing both possible and we actually think even more enjoyable!

Don't worry if you can't make it to the shop, we are still offering our home delivery service. More details can be found here.

September Events

If you have been to previous events at BrOOK'S you will notice a difference in September. In order to keep all of us safe we have significantly reduced our capacity for the events below. This ensures that we have more than the required amount of space for social distancing. Tickets are limited to 4 per booking to ensure appropriate configuration of tables on the nights.

We like to think of it as just a more exclusive experience!

Every Friday During September 7pm - 9.30pm

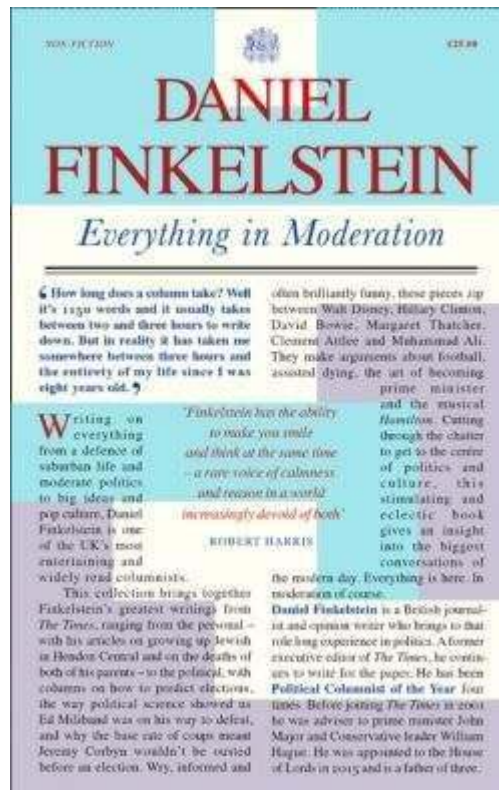

Wine Tasting Evenings

Our wine tasting evenings will run every Friday during September, these events are always very popular and sell out quickly. Tickets are £25 per person, you can find the links to purchase them below. Unfortunately, or fortunately for the lucky ticket holders, Friday 25th September has now sold out. Please note that the events of the 11th and 18th will be tasting the same wines so best not to book for both of those evenings!

Wednesday 9th September 7pm - 9.30pm

An Evening in Conversation with Lord Daniel Finkelstein

On the 20th August Lord Daniel Finkelstein, weekly political columnist and former executive editor of The Times as well as being officially titled Lord Pinner, will be at BrOOK'S for an evening in conversation centered around his new book 'Everything In Moderation'. Get your tickets here to join us for his book launch, tickets are £25 and include a signed copy of the book and your choice of a glass of house wine or a soft drink from the bar. Tickets are limited to 4 per booking.

Further events

Over the coming days we hope to announce further events. We are sure you understand that, at the moment, there are many moving parts involved to put on one of our fabulous events be they anything from children's story time to headline book launches. Just watch this space for more news!

New Book Launches

The Glass Hotel by Emily St. John Mandel

Every now and then we get a new book in and we think just WOW. These copies are numbered, they are signed by Emily, they have gorgeous sprayed edges and if that is not enough they have our absolute favourite thing of a cloth book mark attached to this beautifully bound hardback book. The Glass Hotel moves between a ship, the towers of Manhattan, and the wilderness of remote British Columbia, painting a breathtaking picture of greed and guilt, fantasy and delusion, art and the ghosts of our pasts. (editors note: these will be gone quicker than the wine tasting tickets especially given they are only £14.99...phone now if you would like to reserve yourself a copy!)
